November 2007

Thank you all for sharing your kids with us. There are lots of new gymnasts and their families and we are really enjoying the fall season

There will not be classes Saturday November 10, and Monday November 12, due to the long weekend.

Celebrations Performance

- Friday November 30, 2007 – a wonderful show of color, expression and energy. The entire club will have parts in the performance, that we have been working at these past weeks and will continue to do through November.

Tickets, Posters and more info is online

Welcome to Class,

It is great that you are attending class, and we welcome you to the rhythmic gymnastic program.

If you or your parents have any question etc contact Barb at 888-5801 or email victoriarg@shaw.ca

There are six classes in our program today, November 17 (no class November 10), Nov 24, Dec 1, 8 and 15

The emphasis is fun and skill development, we approach a lot of aspects in each class, to keep up with the high level of energy all kids have.

Enjoy
Barb

The performance will have a range of kids and adults doing different levels of routines. The emphasis is fun and showing talents we have.

For our newest gymnasts the main goal, is to have them arrive 45 minutes prior to the show, they are in the first section, and will be able to sit with parents (they do not need a ticket) for the remaining portions of the show.

We want it to be fun, enjoyable and a great boost to their esteem. Either myself or Trisha will be with them on stage, since this is their first time.

For the 9:30 class, everyone will wear their favorite bathing suit, and the ribbons will be in colors to inspire the celebration of summer.

For the 10 am Safari Ribbon dance the gymnasts will need a black body suit and we will supply dresses and ribbons. Zellers and Walmart have these, preferably either a sleeveless or short sleeve is better than a long sleeve. If this is not possible please let Barb know we have a few in stock.
